NEWS RELEASE

MAILE AMBER ALERT TEST ON THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2014

February 6, 2014

On Thursday, February 06, 2014, the Emergency Alert System (EAS) activated for a test of the Minor Abducted in Life-threatening Emergency/ AMercia's Broadcast Emergency Response Alert system, known in Hawai'i as a MAILE AMBER Alert. This was only a test, there is no abduction associated with this EAS activation.

A MAILE AMBER Alert can be sent when police believe a child has been abducted and is in danger. For more information on the MAILE AMBER Alert system, visit

<http://ag.hawaii.gov/cpja/mcch/maile-amber-alert/>

Again, the EAS activations today for the MAILE AMBER event were part of a test of the system and are not associated with a child abduction case.
